

You are invited to Corcoran's

Living Green Block Talks

...lighten your footprint on the planet and lower your bills...
and earn Green Rewards by attending these free workshops.

Block Talk #1:

Everyone can Compost!

Make your garden flourish and reduce waste by composting kitchen scraps.

- * Learn how to get started.
- * Learn to build/buy a compost system.
- * Get $50 toward your own system.

Saturday 11 August

10:00 am Workshop in English
Midtown Farmers' Market (Lake St / 22nd)

10:30 am Workshop en Español
Midtown Farmers' Market (Lake St / 22nd)

12:30 am Workshop in English
Kathie's house, 2221 E. 31st St.
(across the street from Midtown Market)

...and bring the kids to paint a community compost mural starting at 11:30 am (read more on back)

Community Compost Mural

Kids and adults are invited to paint a community mural about composting (think bugs and worms!)

Saturday 11 August

11:30 am—3:30 pm

Kathie's house, 2221 E. 31st St.
(across the street from Midtown Market)

Snacks & drinks provided

The Neighborhood Advocate, CNO's e-mail newsletter, will announce upcoming events...

Sign up at www.corcoranneighborhood.org

Living Green Block Talks: a project of the Corcoran Neighborhood Organization (CNO) and Alliance for Sustainability with support from the City of Minneapolis and the Solid Waste Management Coordinating Board.

Presenters Needed

for Living Green Block Talks!

- * Everyone's a teacher & a learner.
- * You need no "credentials," just experience with the topic.
- * Earn an additional Green Reward.

Contact Eric at CNO: 724-7457 or eric@corcoranneighborhood.org to learn more or discuss your ideas!

Suggested Topics include:

- * High efficiency lighting
- * Programmable thermostats
- * Low-flow showerheads
- * Commuting without a car
- * Weatherproofing for winter
- * Reducing waste at home

